

FRIENDS OF BRIXTON ST WETLANDS

presents special talks on...

Trees of the Perth Metro area

by Robert Powell

Robert Powell is an author of many books, he is a member of the Wildflower Society and Insect Study group and very passionate about local plants and insects.

Using local native plants to protect our waterways

by Amy Krupa

Amy Krupa won the 2009 Western Australian Landcare Professional Award and is a Hon River Guardian and Phosphorus Awareness Project Coordinator.

Time: 6.30pm

When: 18th October 2010

Where: the Mud Hut Community Hall
Cnr Brixton Street and Kenwick Road

Lots of parking available

Light Supper provided

Gold Coin Donation

Brixton St Wetlands Flora Walk

Enjoy a guided walk through the wetlands looking at plants and insects.

There will be an Insect Society display and music.

When: Saturday 6th November 2010

Time: 9am - 11am

Where: Meet at Alton Street

Morning Tea provided

Gold Coin Donation

For more details on these events
please contact:
Regina on 9459 2964